CATECHISM IN A YEAR 33. What are the symbols of faith?

The symbols of faith are composite formulas, also called "professions of faiths" or "Creeds", with which the Church from her very beginning has set forth synthetically and handed on her own faith in a language that is normative and common to all the faithful.

34. What are the most ancient symbols (professions) of faith?

The most ancient symbols of faith are the baptismal creeds. Because Baptism is conferred "in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19), the truths of faith professed at Baptism are articulated in reference to the three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.

35. What are the most important symbols of faith?

They are the Apostles Creed which is the ancient baptismal symbol of the Church of Rome and the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed which stems from the first two ecumenical councils, that of Nicea (325 A.D.) and that of Constantinople (381 A.D.) and which down to this day are common to all the great churches of the East and West.

THE POPE SPEAKS TO OUR HEARTS

The Sin of Indifference.... Today no one in our world feels responsible; we have lost a sense of responsibility for our brothers and sisters. We have fallen into the hypocrisy of the priest and the Levite whom Jesus described in the parable of the Good Samaritan; we see our brother half-dead on the side of the road and perhaps we say to ourselves, "Poor soul...!" and then go on our way. It's not our responsibility and with that we feel reassured, assuaged. The culture of comfort, which makes us think only of ourselves, makes us insensitive to the cries of other people, makes us live in soap bubbles which however lovely are insubstantial; they offer a fleeting and empty illusion which results in indifference to others; indeed, it even leads to the globalization of indifference. In this globalized world, we have fallen into globalized indifference. We have become used to the suffering of others: it doesn't affect me; it doesn't concern me; it's none of my business!

PILGRIMAGE TO SHRINE OF ST ANN IN CORMAC July 28, 2019 (Sunday) The principal Pilgrimage Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 am with Archbishop Michael Mulhall presiding and a Mass of healing will be celebrated at 2:00pm. Local priests will be assisting with the blessing with St. Ann's oil. Religious articles, St. Ann's Mass League memberships and food and refreshments will be available. Please see: www.cormacpilgrimage.com

THE CHURCH welcomes anyone who is kind enough to bring fresh flowers from their garden to beautify and decorate the altar. You may bring them as you come to church on Sundays.

MANY THANKS for your generous donations designated towards the purchase of the new propane furnace in Cardiff church. The second collection for this weekend (June 22/23) amounted to $555.00

NEW FURNACE FOR CHURCH AND RECTORY. The heating system we have in Cardiff has been installed since 1958. Due to the age, maintenance cost and insurance, at this time we must upgrade the system from oil to propane gas. We need to raise approximately $25,000.00 for its installation. There had already been second collection for this project since June 15/16 weekend which will culminate on the last weekend of August. The current donation has already reached over $5,000.00 so far. The work has already begun and hopefully be finished this week. All are welcome to take a look at the new furnace located down in the basement. I sincerely count and appreciate your financial support for this project. Should you decide to use an envelop marked "heating" for tax deduction purposes, they are available at the entrance of the church. Thank you. Fr vic

FOOD BANK: As we gather around the table of the Lord every Sunday let us all remember the hungry families especially in our faith community—Apsley, Cardiff & Wilberforce, by bringing regularly a couple of non-perishable food items. A bin is provided at the entrance of the church. Thank you..
