2 Timothy 1:6-8,13-14

Luke 17:5-10

Jesus teaches the apostles the importance of faith and service to God.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus teach about faith and service to God. The context is a continuing dialogue between Jesus and his followers about what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Jesus has just finished an instruction on sin and forgiveness. There are two related teachings that Jesus offers to his disciples when they cry out for an increase in faith. The first is the familiar reminder that faith, even just a little, will enable the followers of Jesus to do wondrous things. But this uplifting and inspiring teaching is quickly followed by the second teaching, a caution about knowing one's place in God's plans. The disciples of Jesus are to understand themselves as servants to God and his plans. Even when God works wonders through us, with our mustard seed-sized faith, we must not seek praise. Our participation in God's plans is God's grace to us—nothing more, nothing less. When we are graced enough to cooperate with God, the work we do is nothing more than our obligation to God as faithful stewards. And yet, our faith enables us to believe that what we have offered in service to God, as his servants, can be made to produce a hundredfold.

TRUTHS TO REMEMBER : It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving. (Mother Teresa).

CATECHISM IN A YEAR

64. What kind of bond exists between created things?

There exist an interdependence and a hierarchy among creatures as willed by God. At the same time, there is also a unity and solidarity among creatures since all have the same Creator, are loved by him and are ordered to his glory. Respecting the laws inscribed in creation and the relations which derive from the nature of things is, therefore, a principle of wisdom and a foundation for morality.

65. What is the relationship between the work of creation and the work of redemption?

The work of creation culminates in the still greater work of redemption, which in fact gives rise to a new creation in which everything will recover its true meaning and fulfillment.

HAVE YOU EVER ATTENDED A PARISH MISSION?

What it is anyway? A Parish Mission is an excellent opportunity to invite back home those who have become alienated from the Church. If you happen to know one, kindly extend the invitation by phoning, emailing or verbally. Make them feel that they matter. The Mission is held at Our Lady of Lourdes Church. It will run from Sunday (Nov. 3) until Wednesday (Nov. 6) @ 7pm and be conducted by Redemptorist Father Eugene O’Reilly. Refreshments will follow. See you then! Mark this date on your calendar!

FATHER EUGENE O’REILLY C.Ss.R.

Affectionately known as “Red” Fr. O’Reilly was born in Monaghan, Ireland in 1944. He came to Canada with his family and later joined the Redemptorists. Upon graduating with a B.A. from the University of Windsor, he pursued his theological studies in France and Montreal and was ordained in 1972. Since 1983 he has preached Missions and retreats to parishes, teachers, School boards, clergy and religious throughout Canada and the U.S. He has also served in St. John’s Newfoundland as Pastor of a large parish. Father Red completed a sabbatical year, part of which was spent at the School of Applied Theology, Berkely, California. He has a particular interest in music, and has composed a number of religious songs. Some of his music is in the Catholic Book of Worship and the Grade four and five Religion Programme in Canada. He has teamed up with other Redemptorists and together they have produced five recordings. Mission Preaching is Fr. Red’s full time ministry and he brings to it a ready smile, a wonderful sense of humor and a compassionate understanding of people and the complex world in which we live.

NEW PROPANE GAS HEATING SYSTEM. The total cost is $25,664.73 including taxes. The second collection this weekend (Sept. 7/8) amounted to $20.00 bringing the total amount of $10,047.65. You may consider using a special envelop marked “heating” found at the entrance of the church, so at the end of the year you will receive a charitable receipt for the purpose of personal tax deduction.

IN THE MEANTIME ... while I’m on my holiday Fr. Gene Shin will be my substitute for 5 weekends starting Sept.7/8. I return on Oct. 10th. Should you have a request for Mass, kindly give him a call at 705-656-3794.

IF YOU HAVE AUTOMATIC withdrawals from your bank account to pay your bills, taxes or mortgage, then you already understand how pre-authorized payment works. Regular Sunday offering makes a difference. PAP FORMS are available at the entrance of the church, fill out a copy and submit it to Fr. Vic for signature. Why not participate in PAP?
